

Alarm (Clean) - Samryebread lyrics

Checking my reflection in the mirror to make sure I'm still myself
Wonder if we ran off all those years, would I still be looking back?
Blunts and blunders all in your smile
I've been on a bender, breaking walls down
Lose your watch, this is where the time stops

I just wanna lie with you

Start up spinning
Get to work
Brain is shrinking
Like a raisin
Give me water or a second to think
Grind grind grind grind
Sleepless nights is brainwash devices
Keep forgetting what my name is
Or if I had an opinion
What's my line line line

Pitter-patter on my conscious lately
A star must've fallen
It must be raining
Cause the streets are burning
While the wheels keep turning

I just couldn't wake up, world is driving me crazy
Couldn't wake up, it was driving me crazy
I couldn't wake up
(Girl wake up get out of bed, girl wake up get out of bed)
I just couldn't wake up, world is driving me crazy
Couldn't wake up, it was driving me crazy
I couldn't wake up
(Girl wake up get out of bed, girl wake up get out of bed)

The sun is soft on your face as it hits in the morning time
But why does it burn as I emerge into my day?
Where's my ambition
You make it hard to leave this peace
But I gotta get up
And if I forget to will you remind me?

I just couldn't wake up, world is driving me crazy
Couldn't wake up, it was driving me crazy
I couldn't wake up
(Get the up out of bed, girl wake up get out of bed)
I just couldn't wake up, world is driving me crazy
Couldn't wake up, it was driving me crazy
I couldn't wake up
(Girl wake up get out of bed, girl wake up get out of bed)

Really really wanna lye with you
Until the suns the moon
And we forget this gloom

Lying in your arms, that's my whole world
Wanna take in all you got to offer
We do what we want, we are the authors
Don't have no room for re-writes
