

For Now - Samryebread lyrics

I know the sun will narrow
I know my breath will shallow
And shadow's always chasing me

We're only here to borrow
What will show tomorrow
And no forever will ever be

But for now
I'm floating
For now
Nothing can touch me
For now
I'm golden
For now
Just hold me

Oh we can handle damage (though I'd rather not dear)
The worst has already happened (God I hope you're here for)
And I'm not afraid anymore
(Is it corny if I say it feels like magic?)
So let's draw crazy patterns (let me see your best draw)
And aim for lower statures (cause I don't need nothing)
Until we reach irrelevance
(I wanna disappear into it)

But for now
I'm floating
For now
Nothing can touch me
For now
I'm golden
For now
Just hold me

Although we're born for breaking
I'm not ready to grieve this
Don't mind me, I am selfish
I won't let go of this
And I will leave dead flowers in the vase
Though their muted colors don't quite hit the same
I want this now, forever more
I'm not prepared for what's in store

But for now
I'm floating
For now
Nothing can touch me
For now
I'm golden
For now
Just hold me
